Board of Trade Celebrates

The Tenth Anniversary A Notable Occasion

That the Arlington Board of Trade has been a large and prosperous organization was evinced by the gathering in Robbins Memorial Town Hall Tuesday evening, when members and guests came to celebrate its tenth anniversary with a banquet and entertainment. The tables occupied the entire floor space, from which a splendid menu was served by the Hardy Catering Company at 6.30.

The tables and hall presented a handsome appearance with the floral decorations arranged with taste by the Rawson Flower shop, especially on the stage, where was seated Walter K. Hutchinson's orchestra, who played during the banquet. A unique feature of the decoration was that of an illuminated sign surmounted by a star, the former carrying the dates 1916-1926, with "Welcome Arlington Board of Trade," which had been made by M. Rose, the tailor.

President Elliott R. Barker, with Mrs. Barker and invited guests, occupied a table at the head of the hall. Mr. Barker made an ideal presiding officer. The invocation was by Rev. Henry S. Potter, D. D., minister of the First Baptist church. Those seated at this table were Charles S. Parker, commander of Francis Gould Post 36, G. A. R.; Commander Fred B. Fallon of Arlington Post, American Legion; Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, president of the Woman's Club; Harry Hopkins, vice-president of the Rotary Club; Roger W. Homer, president of the Middlesex Sportsman's Association; Leslie E. A. Smith, president of the Community Club; Senator Charles A. Warren and wife, also our Representative, Bert S. Currier and wife.

Previous to the more formal exercises, John R. Hendrick led in community singing with A. E. Thiesfeldt at the piano. The greeting was by President Parker, who told in an informal way what the Board has accomplished along civic lines since it was organized, also of what had previously been accomplished by the Arlington Business Men's Association, of which the Board of Trade is the outcome. Mr. Barker, in closing, read a "gem of a verse," which we will print next week in connection with other data regarding the Board of Trade, spoken of by Mr. Barker in his address.

S. H. Thompson, president of the Massachusetts Chamber of Commerce, with which the local organizations is affiliated, brought a message and greeting. The speaker of the evening was Dr. Davitt D. Vaughn.

Symmes Arlington Hospital Campaign Starts April 20

Rapid progress is being made in the preparatory work for the Symmes-Arlington Hospital Campaign. In that movement, $150,000 will be raised to enlarge the institution as well as to free it from debt. This indebtedness is not due to annual deficits. It is the result of expansion already completed which has added about $100,000 to the hospital's physical assets. The trustees now find that in addition to lifting this debt of $35,000, they must spend $115,000 more on further enlargement and additional improvements.

Symmes-Arlington Hospital serves not only the town of Arlington, but also Lexington, Belmont, Waverly and other places. It is regarded by members of the medical profession as well as by laymen who have been patients in the institution, as one of the finest hospitals in greater Boston. Like all other properly conducted community hospitals, the Symmes-Arlington is operated by a board of trustees for the benefit of the people. It is incorporated under the Massachusetts Statute prohibiting payment of dividends to anybody. All the trustees serve without pay.

Three hundred and thirty-five prominent women and men will serve as volunteers in the coming campaign, which will extend from April 20th to April 30th. Many of them are well known not only in Arlington, but also in Lexington and surrounding points. At the head of the movement is Horatio A. Phinney. Next under Mr. Phinney in authority come Arthur J. Wellington and William A. Muller, both of whom are vice-chairmen of the executive committee. There will be another vice-chairman representing Lexington, and probably a fourth from the Belmont-Waverly district.

Wilson D. Clark, Jr., is treasurer of the campaign, as well as of the hospital. Charles H. Stevens is campaign secretary. Mrs. Herbert W. Reed is chairman of the woman's corps. Her vice-chairman is Mrs. Frank D. Sawyer.

The campaign has been worked out by E. C. Barber, who has had great success in putting over similar campaigns in other towns and cities. More details with committees will be given in next week's issue of the Advocate.

Call to Malden Church

Rev. A. J. Strait Has Received Call To Robinson Memorial Methodist Church.

Next Sunday morning, Rev. Archibald J. Strait will probably preach the last sermon as pastor of the Calvary Methodist Episcopal church, as he has been issued a call to the pastorate of the Robinson Memorial Methodist Church of Malden, to succeed Rev. George H. Phillips, who is going to the First Methodist church, St. Johnsbury, Vt. His acceptance is pending the approval of the Bishop Frederick B. Leete of Indianapolis, the presiding officer at the New England Conference at Westfield, which is being held from April 7 to April 12th, and will come at the last day of the Conference.

Mr. Strait came to Arlington five years ago this month, and his pastorate has been a fruitful one. When he came, the church edifice was under construction. During his ministry, $29,000 has been raised for the church debt alone, and the new parsonage on Linwood street, adjoining the church, which cost $8,500, has been erected. During the past five years, three hundred and sixteen members have been received into the church, making the present membership four hundred and two. The Sunday School average five years ago was between seventy and eighty. For the past three weeks it has been one hundred and sixty-two. Among the many functions of the church organization that Mr. Strait has been responsible for is the "300" Club for men, which not only includes the church men but also the men of the community. This group has done some worthwhile things and has a good-sized membership.

Mr. Strait was born thirty-five years ago in Wolcott, N. Y., and was graduated from Northeastern University, Evanston, Illinois, and received his A. B. degree there. He received his A. M. degree at Harvard University in 1918, and also studied three years at the Harvard Theological school. Previous to coming to Arlington, he served as pastor for three years at Newton Lower Falls. He is married and has three children.

His departure from Arlington will be regretted by his many friends and congregation, but their wishes for continued success in his new pastorate will follow him. At the annual meeting of the church, a unanimous vote was taken to recall Mr. Strait to the pastorate for the coming year.

ENGAGEMENT TEA

Mrs. G. Arthur Hastings, of 37 Robbins road, gave a tea at the Hastings residence on the afternoon of March 31st, in honor of her daughter, Miss Helen Francis, who recently announced her engagement to Mr. Franklin Hubbard Hutchinson, son of Mrs. Fannie Hutchinson and the late Walter K. Hutchinson. The rooms of the Hastings residence were filled with beautiful flowers that had been sent by many of the guests, bidden to the tea, which added to the festive appearance of the same. Mrs. Hastings received in a tan crepe, while Miss Hastings was in blue. The guests, who numbered fifty-two, included many of Miss Hastings' college friends who were home for the spring vacation.

The dining room was a dream of loveliness with its table decorations in yellow and lavender, carried out with a large basket filled with flowers in these shades, also candles as well as in the refreshments served. The pourers at the table were Mrs. A. H. Hilliard and Mrs. Walter K. Hutchinson, of Arlington; Mrs. Albert August and Mrs. L. L. H. Baum, of Cambridge. The servers were Dorothy Hilliard, Cynthia Hutchinson, Edith Yeaker, Helen August and Barbara Hastings.

"FOLLIES OF '76"

Presented by Arlington Rotary Club.

For weeks the members of Arlington Rotary Club, assisted by some of their friends, have been preparing an entertainment, which has been advertised as "The Follies of '76." Mr. William O. Partridge has been the director with dances arranged and coached by Hazel Sands Welch and chorus numbers directed by Helen Barr. The accompanist for the chorus has been Mary H. French, while Mrs. Harold B. Wood has played at the rehearsals for the dances.

It has been a stupendous undertaking and its first presentation was given last evening (Thursday) in Robbins Memorial Town hall. The large chorus appeared in old-fashioned costumes and sang old-fashioned songs that took immensely with the audience. The entire show is cleverly arranged and with the cast assembled, no better has been given in the town for many a day. Some of our best known and highly respected citizens are seen on the stage in the chorus as well as in the dances, the minuet, and the polka. Philip Eberhardt plays on his zither, down on the levee, where you will see the picks listening to Old Black Joe and later in their frolic which ends in some plunging into the ocean, the spray dashing up as they dive into the waves. "Mel Dunham" (James H. Priest), and "Ma Dunham" (Harry Hopkins), make their appearance on the stage with the entire company at the grand finale, which affords an entertainment unique and quite different from anything that has ever been given in Arlington.

The second performance will be given this (Friday) evening.

A full report of the "Follies" will be printed next week, in these columns.

IDA F. BUTLER

REBEKAH LODGE ANNUAL SALE AND DINNER

A successful sale was held by the Ida F. Butler Rebekah Lodge, chartered by Mrs. Ethel B. Kinney, on Tuesday afternoon, April 6th, in the I. O. O. F. Hall, Associates Block. A business men's dinner was served with a roast lamb menu from twelve until 2 o'clock and from 5 to 7 a supper consisting of roast lamb, beans, cabbage salad, rolls, coffee, pie and cheese. Both were in charge of a committee chairmaned by Mrs. J. S. Kelley. In the evening a large number enjoyed dancing, the music for which was furnished by Martin's orchestra.

The tables with articles for sale were arranged around the hall, and were effectively decorated and chairmanned by Mrs. Edward Wilson, in charge of Mrs. Edward Wilson, in charge of Mrs. Bessie Perkins, in charge of Mrs. Robert F. Walkinslaw, and the girls, pink and green, in charge of Mrs. F. E. Sawyer.

Arlington Grange held its regular meeting in G. A. R. Hall on Wednesday evening. The neighboring Granges, Cambridge, Lexington and Reading, were guests of the evening. A large delegation from each was present. A splendid program was provided, including a sketch, "Hiring Help." The refreshments were in charge of the Community Service Committee, Mrs. Florence Baxter, chairman. The Grange is to hold a dancing party at its next meeting in charge of Mrs. Fred Benson and committee. The Waltham Grange orchestra will furnish the music.

The Friendly Folk of the Congregational church will hold a bazaar on April 20th, afternoon and evening in the church vestry. Supper at 6.30. Tickets at 50 cents are limited.

Arlington Town Meeting

Many Articles in Warrant Disposed of. Several Cause Considerable Discussion.

There were one hundred and ninety-two Town Meeting Members present at the adjourned Town Meeting held Monday evening in Town Hall, out of a possible two hundred and sixty-one. This was nine less than at the meeting held March 26th, when the first business under the March Town Warrant was considered. Before a motion was called to adjourn, this meeting, which came at 10.15, some fifty-seven of the seventy-two articles printed in the warrant were disposed of. Article 63 had been taken up when adjournment was called, but had not been disposed of. This related to the amendment of our Zoning By-laws that will need a good deal of consideration before Town Meeting Members are ready to vote upon them.

There were two articles voted to be laid upon the table that will be taken up later and there were also several articles that had been disposed of under articles in the special town warrant, held in conjunction with the regular town meeting of March 26. Articles from number six to thirty-four went through without a dissenting voice, although many of them called for the appropriations of large sums of money, but the Town Meeting Members expressed their confidence in the Finance Committee of Twenty-One by accepting its recommendation in every instance.

It was not until Article 34 was reached that there came any discussion. This was to see if the town will appoint a committee of five to investigate and consider the matter of additional school accommodations, make an appropriation therefor, or take any action relative thereto. The Finance Committee recommended that such committee be appointed by the Moderator to investigate and consider the subject with power to fill vacancies and to report not later than the annual meeting in 1927 and recommended that the sum of $4,000 be appropriated for the use of said committee.

Mr. Earl A. Ryder, after being recognized by Moderator John G. Brackett, criticized the school committee in administering the school affairs of Arlington and read a list of towns and cities as large, if not larger than Arlington, where less money is being spent for schools, but which Mr. Ryder stated were maintaining equally fine schools as is Arlington. He offered a substitute motion for the above article in which he asked that the committee to be appointed should not include any members of the school committee or anyone who had previously served on a committee, to consider additional school accommodations for Arlington. The moderator ruled that Mr. Ryder's substitute motion could not be entertained under the articles.

Article 35, which asked for an appropriation to improve Spy Pond. The original motion as printed in the warrant was passed.

This calls for a sum of $6,000, which sum will be raised by general taxation and will be expended under the direction of the committee appointed to consider the condition of Spy Pond under vote passed January 14th, 1926. Mr. Alfred W. Lombard is chairman of this committee.

Under article 36, the meeting sustained the recommendation of the Finance committee, which was that a special committee of five be appointed by the Moderator to investigate and consider the matter of a memorial or memorials commemorating the service and sacrifices of persons who served in the World War, and to fill any vacancies, and to report at the annual meeting in 1927, the sum of $500 being appropriated for the use of the committee.

The sum of $150 was appropriated for Patriot's Day under Article 37, but not until Walter H. Elliott had made a request to know why the money was to be appropriated, which he felt might be better expended for a band concert to be given in the summer, when more people might enjoy it. Selectman Frederick A. Hill explained that it had become the custom to take some notice of the coming of "Paul Revere" through the town on the nineteenth of April as he rode to Lexington and Concord, and this money was necessary to carry out the simple plan adopted by Arlington.

Considerable discussion was participated in under article 38, which asked that the town transfer the control of the so-called Crosby school playground on Winter street from the joint control of the school committee and the Park Commissioners to the Park Commissioners. The Finance committee did not recommend this transfer, but after the meeting had heard the remarks of A. C. Fitch, a member of the Park Commission, the meeting voted 78 to 63 to transfer the grounds to the Park Commissioners, although Prof. Rice, chairman of the school committee, expressed his belief that he was sure both departments might work amicably together in caring for a matter that has given residents in the vicinity of the so-called playground some concern and annoyance.

A long argument arose when Article 39 was taken up. This called for an appropriation for the improvement, development and use of the playground situated between the High school lot and the land of the Boston and Maine railroad. The Finance committee recommended that no appropriation be made for this purpose. Charles Fitch of the Park Commissioners, presented a substitute motion asking that $5,000 be appropriated for the purpose and that the money be raised by general tax. Walter Elliott cautioned against making an appropriation of this amount as it would only be a "drop in the bucket" against the amount.

HEADED WRONG

It was never the intention of the founders of our Government to have it go into business competition with its private citizens. Every time it enters the field of business it does a lasting damage to large numbers of its own people and adds a double burden on the taxpayers who must make up the tax revenue which government-owned enterprises are exempted from paying.

The greatest sufferers from governmental competition at present are the small publishers and printers who cannot compete with the tax-free government-owned printing plant which prints and sells return-addressed stamped envelopes. There is much agitation to discontinue this abuse but at the same time we see the country flooded with political propaganda to launch the government in other branches of industry. All such proposals are contrary to the true spirit of our Constitution.

The fundamental point the American people must consider is not so much whether they want public ownership of some particular industry, but whether or not they want to change our entire form of government. The cardinal principle of which is a recognition of the right to private property and the development of private enterprise under government protection, to a system which does not recognize the right to private property and which would have the government step in and take over the various business enterprises which heretofore private citizens have had a right to operate.

EASTER AT FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IN WASHINGTON

Rev. Don Ivan Patch Writes of His Experiences as Associate Minister to Rev. Jason Noble Pierce, D. D.

Dear Advocate:—

I am a bit weary after the Easter Sunday work but it seems hardly fair to my friends or myself not to jot down first-hand impressions of my first Easter at First Congregational Church in Washington.

Dr. Pierce has had the Lenten season in mind for some weeks. He arranged for week before last the showing of the Passion Play-terropticon pictures with addresses every afternoon and evening by Dr. Drake, who has seen the play three times. The audiences that came even in the afternoon were good. I am surprised to see so many persons stop in at the church at a quarter of five and sit through an hour address.

Last week we had the privilege from Sunday morning through Friday night, to hear the Rev. Dr. Charles Stelzle who is well known as a labor leader, the founder of the Labor temple, the writer of books and the generous hearted friend of man. He gave a most inspiring series of addresses, making a definite link as the week progressed between the individual and the social gospel. I introduced Dr. Stelzle at six of his addresses. He called upon me personally in my office several times and I handled the newspaper publicity in the Washington papers. He was much interested in the plans for our campaign for a million and a quarter dollars and suggested methods of publicity for us.

Last Sunday I shared the service with Dr. Pierce, having the scriptural, responsive reading and invocation. It is customary for the congregation to rise when the President of the United States enters the church. Last week Dr. Coolidge was present with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stearns. At the church where the President attends the Ministers come down out of the pulpit, the congregation waits until the President goes out, and the Ministers accompany the Presidential party. In the absence of Mrs. Coolidge I had the privilege of walking to the motor with Mr. and Mrs. Stearns. A battery of cameras met us and no doubt the group appears in some paper.

This week, Washington has been very interesting as this is the season when the groups of young people come to Washington for sight seeing. Let me voice the opinion for parents that this is one of the best methods of education that I know anything about. The young people should see the capitol city. Any may I add that as far as I can see they are as safe from every point of view as they are anywhere. We have had three or four delegations of thirty or forty each here at the hotel all at once. And they are an interesting lot.

This morning we had a service at nine o'clock for persons who could not get seats for the eleven o'clock service. It was wonderful to see the number of young people file into the church. Two weeks ago we had a delegation from Lasalle Seminary in Auburndale. This week I asked one group where they came from and found it was Wisconsin. The church was filled and four-fifths I think were young people.

At the eleven o'clock service the President, Mrs. Coolidge and Mr. and Mrs. Stearns came in. Mr. Coolidge shows very plainly the strain that is upon him. One is conscious of the strength of the man, but even more of the fact that the responsibility and burden that the President carries is very heavy. He is quite different from the comparatively carefree man that we used to see about the Boston streets.

I opened the service, read the Scripture, said the prayer and announced the hymns. It was very inspiring to speak even in these ways to eighteen hundred people. At the close of the service, according to custom, we went down and walked out with the group. I was introduced to Mrs. Coolidge and escorted her to the outside door of the church. I have heard a great deal about the wonderful grace of the First Lady of the Land but one has to really meet her to appreciate it. She is the incarnation of courtesy and gentleness. We chatted about one or two mutual friends, one of them Mrs. Susie Carman of our church quartette. I met the boy, what a wonderful young chap he is. He is the President's own son in manner and face but very much handsomer than his father.

I have seen crowds in Boston and other cities but the crowd that waits to see the President enter and leave the church is unequalled. For at least a block in all directions on the sidewalks and a part of the street the crowd was packed in. Just as Mrs. Coolidge shook hands with me preparatory to going into her car six or seven cameras clicked. (By the way a group of some twenty was received into membership this morning and five babies baptized. I was allowed to give flowers to all the babies and the first one gave a good omen of fortune to me by grabbing the flower in the tight grasp of a two-months-old hand. Mrs. Coolidge found this all very interesting, and smiled her approval of the baby.)

Tomorrow I am the guest of Dr. Pierce at the egg rolling, a post Easter fête for the children. I think that we are all guests of the President's family as I was asked to tell Mrs. Coolidge that I was to come with Dr. Pierce.

Please bear in mind the fact that we had four services this Easter day, one at nine, one at eleven, one at 4.45 and one at eight in the evening. The church was filled at every service and there was little duplication. The group is quite different, totaling about six thousand persons, allowing some for repeaters. I had a part in the two early services and charge of the other two. This evening there was a cantata, Easter tide by Protheroe and I had the service by myself. I preached and had a very attentive audience of over fifteen hundred. Lots of folks hunted me out to thank me. The day seems to have been full of fine thrills. I hardly know which one was the greatest. I think preaching tonight and walking out with the white clad First Lady. Though to stand almost at military attention waiting for the President of the United States to enter the Church and take his seat was real interesting.

I found persons from several places who knew me, parishioners of a Mr. Wiley, one of my predecessors at Beverly; two persons from Bangor, Me.; a Gordon Barker of Beverly; a woman preacher formerly of Bangor, etc.

I forgot to tell of a most delightful two hours spent at the Corcoran Art Galleries on Saturday evening. The paintings were presented at this private showing and the card stated in the corner "Full dress or uniform"—such a queer way! (By the way, I hope the next dress shirts have soft collars and cuffs.) All American artists, three paintings that I had seen at the Boston Art Club. The artists were there, some of them. I met the wife of the Ambassador from Bulgaria, a charming American woman with a New England accent and a Mt. Holyoke degree. If I say that the people were as interesting as the paintings be assured that it is a mixed compliment. And which painting took the first two thousand dollar prize? Can you guess? "The Man With The Fish." I watched the people look at it and I was not clear whether the turned up noses were due to opinions contrary to that of the judges that awarded the prizes or to the over-realistic fish! I must not write more.

P. S. Yes, I was right. The Pierce family and I were the guests of Mrs. Coolidge at the White House for the egg rolling. We went over at about eleven o'clock and found about a dozen special guests there. Among the number was the Captain of the Mayflower, Major Boon, the son of Mr. Dawes Mr. and Mrs. Stearns, and some very charming children. The custom of egg rolling has hardly survived except among a few of the children. A very large crowd gathers mostly to see Mrs.

Coolidge, who was in the balcony as were we. I think the Pathe people got most of us as they were "cranking" much of the time.

The most interesting members of the whole party, save Mrs. Coolidge, was "Rob Roy" and the son of a Senator from the west, three years old. The crowd were so enthusiastic over Mrs. Coolidge, watched her all the time and applauded her at every move. They just love her and no wonder.

We came away and had lunch at the City Club and went around to see the rain bow fountain turned on for the day.

Fifty Years Ago This Week

On Fast Forenoon there will be a union service of the Orthodox and Baptist societies at the house of the latter at 11 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Cady will speak on the "Physiological Effects of Alcohol."

The annual meeting of the Baptist society for the election of officers and other business was held last Tuesday evening. In spite of the storm there was a good attendance. The following is the report of the business transactions: moderator, John S. Crosby; clerk, William E. Wood; standing committee, John P. Wyman, Varoum, Post, J. Herbert Frost; treasurer and collector, Cyrus Wood. An assessment of 16% was laid on pews owned by members of the society and 22% of their valuation on all rented pews. $1500 and the rent of the pastorage was voted as salary of the pastor and $100 was appropriated for music. The amount of money raised last year for church expenses was $2,362.46.

The executive committee of the Arlington Reform Club hired the front room in Dodge's building and it will be opened as a reading room this (Saturday) evening.

While New England was enjoying the beautiful spring weather of Sunday last, the great central plain continent was being drenched with rain and it seems now that there was enough water in cloudland to more than satisfy that section. The storm reached here about 3.30 p. m. on Monday, and up to 3.30 p. m. on Tuesday rain fell incessantly. At 3.30 the rain gave way to sleet and soon after, an old-fashioned north-east snow storm set in which continued furiously far into the night. The wind during the afternoon travelled at the rate of 54 miles an hour. There were times the snow fell so thickly that it was with difficulty that one could see the length of a block. Travelling was about suspended and the horse car track of the Union R. R. was not clear until after 10 o'clock Wednesday forenoon.

At the meeting of the Arlington Reform Club held last Wednesday evening, it was voted to hold a temperance mass meeting in the Town Hall on the evening of Fast Day. The clergymen of several of the churches will be present and interesting speeches from clubs in this vicinity are expected. The meeting will probably be the most interesting of any yet held.

IN 1901

Twenty-Five Years Ago This Week

Up to Thursday everybody was chanting, "Rain, rain, go away. Come again some other day."

The annual meeting of the Improvement Association will occur April 29th.

The annual meeting of St. John's parish was held on Monday evening. Dr. Hubbard Foster and Mr. George O. Goldsmith were elected wardens, and Mr. William D. Elwell, clerk. The vestrymen chosen were Messrs. Thorpe, Sullivan, Lancaster, Clark, Hubbard, Buhler and Arms.

It will doubtless be interesting for the friends of the High School to know by whom the "High School Clarion" is edited and managed this year, so the list is given as follows: (in order named), Philip M. Patterson, Marion Churchill, Lillian Wilkins, Josephine Frost; exchange editor, Constance Yeames; business manager, Louis A. Moore; assistant business manager, Frank A. Buhler; treasurer, Leon E. Smith and secretary, Helen M. Brigham.

Dr. F. A. Bisbee, editor of the Christian Leader, a relative of Mr. L. D. Bradley, has bought the Bean house on the corner of Appleton and Pine streets.

The postpaid service is greatly appreciated now that letters can be registered at the home door, money orders sent and money orders cashed in the same simple fashion. The letter carriers are very obliging in the discharge of these duties, which make them a traveling post office to all intents and purposes.

Mr. Fred W. Derby was engaged as a violin soloist on Easter for All Souls Church (Unitarian) at Braintree.

The Samaritan Society will meet with Mrs. James O. Holt next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

REV. RALPH H. ROWSE SAYS THAT "WAR IS GREATEST SIN OF SOCIETY"

Rev. Ralph H. Rowse, who is now minister of the Broadway Community church in Hartford, Conn., preached a sermon recently in his community church in Hartford, in which he made the above statement. In that sermon he brought out the thought that only through the cross can public opinion be changed. The Hartford Daily Courant gave a long excerpt of the sermon, which made it apparent that Mr. Rowse is making his ministry felt in that city. As he said in the article, "No one has changed public opinion for the better so tremendously as Christ, who paid the price of presenting His cause by dying on the cross." Hundreds of lives have been sacrificed again, he pointed out, that His will might be done on earth.

Mr. Rowse is a son of Mr. Arthur Rowse of Bonnie Brae farm, Bedford, but formerly of Arlington, and is also a nephew of Mr. Walter W. Rowse of Lexington. His wife is the older daughter of Mr. William Graue, Arlington's building inspector. He graduated from Arlington High school in 1908 and Harvard University in 1911 with an A. B. degree and distinction in Greek history and literature. He was graduated from Hartford Theological Seminary in 1914 with the John S. Welles Fellowship for two years foreign study, and studied in Germany and Scotland. He held a pastorate at Swansey, N. H., for four years, then became associated with the University of Vermont as secretary of the Y. M. C. A. work. Mr. Rowse has been in Hartford for five years and is now interested in the project to erect a $150,000 Community church, over which he is now pastor.

At a recent meeting of the church members, seventy-five dollars, in $5 gold pieces arranged in a figure five, indicative of the fifth anniversary of the church and placed in a frame, were given to Rev. and Mrs. Rowse. The church, which started with a charter membership of 109 five years ago, now numbers three hundred and twenty-eight.

A DANGER SIGNAL

NEEDED ON BROADWAY
Why not some kind of a danger signal on Broadway to warn the motorists of the cross streets. While the silent policeman might help to warn motorists, it would not add to the appearance of the street. In some places along the Newburyport Turnpike, there are red signal lights suspended over the dangerous crossings. These can be seen day or night for miles and are a great help. Something of this nature would lessen the dangers that are sure to grow on Broadway, now that it is open for traffic.

POVERTY PARTY DANCE

A Poverty Party in the form of a dance was held in Ye Lantern hall on March 27th, given by the Assembly Club, when the hall was well filled. Many unique and funny costumes were worn for which prizes were given. First lady's prize was taken by Miss M. Little and the gentleman's by K. B. Goodwin. The elimination was won by Mrs. L. G. Worcester and Mr. A. G. Blake.

Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Maud Baker.

RECENT DEATHS

MRS. ELLEN COUGHLIN

Mrs. Ellen Coughlin, wife of Arthur Coughlin, died at her home, 54 Norcross street, on Tuesday of last week. She had been a resident of this town for many years, living in the vicinity in which she died. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon, April 1st, services being held in St. Agnes church, conducted by Rev. Joseph J. Leonard. Burial was in St. Paul Cemetery. The bearers were Everett, Arthur J. William, Arthur, Leo and Warren Coughlin, grandsons of the deceased.

MRS. ETTA J. TOWNE

Mrs. Etta J. Towne, a resident of his town for the past eighteen years, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marion F. White, 127 Mystic street, with whom she made her home, on Saturday, April 3rd. She was born in Hopewell Cape, New Brunswick, on August 16, 1863, the daughter of Edward J. and Elmira Bishop O'Brien. Forty-four years ago she married Henry A. Towne at the Perkins Street Church, Somerville, which church later merged with another parish and formed what is known now as the Grace Baptist church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Smith, pastor. Mr. Towne passed away five years ago this month. Mrs. Towne was a member of the Grace church until five years ago, when she transferred her membership to the First Baptist church. Her entire interest centered on her home and family and church.

The funeral was held from her late home on Monday, April 5th, at 1 o'clock, Rev. Henry Sterling Potter, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, conducting the service. Interment was at the family lot at Tynaboro. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Waite, she is survived by a son, Walter E. Towne, of New London, N. H., also nine grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Althea Warren and Mrs. Clarence Stay of Winter Hill, Somerville, and four brothers, Mr. Harry O'Brien of Waverley, Victor O'Brien of Kennebunkport, Maine; William O'Brien of Brockton, and Sanford O'Brien, of New Brunswick.

MISS MARY PRENDERGAST

Miss Mary Prendergast, daughter of the late James and Mary O'Brien Prendergast, passed away at her home, 25 Park street, after a long and trying illness. She was born and reared in this town and attended our public schools. For ten years she was in the tailoring department of Jordan Marsh Company, and for the past five years has held a similar position with the firm of Leopold Morse Co. Ill health since early fall, has interfered with her work, but as long as strength permitted she pursued her avocation.

The funeral was held Wednesday March 31 with high mass of requiem celebrated in St. Agnes church by Rev. Donald F. Simpson, attended by many long time friends and neighbors. Musical sections of the mass were sung by members of the church choir. The bearers were Thomas, Michael and John Prendergast and John Conolly. Burial was in St. Paul cemetery. The deceased is survived by a brother and one sister, the latter Mrs. Edward Newman of Arlington.

Announcement

Owing to being so busy with construction work, during the season of 1925, I was compelled to refuse a large number of orders for garage construction.

To those who may be planning to build this Spring, it is a good time to place your order now, that your new garage may be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the season, also that the grading, seeding and shrubs, can easily be taken care of in season.

If you are going to build with blocks, I would recommend using our water proof, square granite face, which makes a job that you will be pleased with.

All my granite face blocks, are faced with clean graded granite.

A card in the mail, or a ring on the phone and we will call and give you an estimate.

GAS SERVICE LEADS

Whenever there's trouble in the coal industry, attention is centered on the gas business. This is only natural because gas service is now a stronger competitor of solid fuel than ever before.

Think of five thousand separate uses for gas—with more being developed every day! People everywhere are casting their heating burdens on the gas companies, secure in the knowledge that gas service is always on tap—clean, efficient, and best of all, economical.

When a home is fully piped for gas service, fuel worries depart forever, and so do ashes, smoke, soot and dirt. These facts are becoming known to thousands who have never thought about them before, and the results are seen in better cooking, more efficient heating of rooms and homes, and running hot water at every faucet.

RECENT DEATHS

MRS. SUSAN PIKE CHAMBERS

Mrs. Susan Pike Chambers, widow of Mathew J. Chambers, passed away Thursday, April 1st, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Munch, 395 Mass. avenue, with whom she has made her home the past sixteen years. She was born sixty-seven years ago, in St. John's N. B., the daughter of Captain Jordan and Susan Gordan Pike. Through her kindly and pleasant nature she made many friends during her residence in Arlington, which fact was demonstrated by the mass of beautiful floral tributes. The funeral was held at her late home on Saturday, April 3rd, and Rev. Mr. Peirce of Somerville conducted the services. Interment was at Cedar Grove cemetery. Besides a sister, already mentioned, the deceased is survived by another, Mrs. Katherine Roberts, of Dorchester.

MRS. GRACE R. PALMER

On Saturday, Mrs. Grace R. (Ross) Palmer, widow of Harry J. Palmer, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Craft, of 44 Gloucester street, with whom she has resided the past six years, after an illness of but a few days. She was born in New Brunswick, seventy-two years ago, and spent the greater part of her early life in Fort Fairfield, Maine, where Mr. Palmer, who has been deceased the past eight years, was established in business. For twenty-five years the deceased lived in Medford, where she was a member of South Medford Baptist church, having served as deaconess there for five years. Two years previous to coming to Arlington, Mrs. Palmer lived in the West.

The funeral services were held from her late residence on Monday, April 5th, in charge of Rev. J. H. Jenner, pastor of the South Medford church, assisted by Rev. R. J. Davis, of the Arlington Heights Baptist church. Mrs. Chambers of Medford was the soloist. Interment was at Mt. Pleasant. Besides Mrs. Craft, three other children, Mrs. N. D. Smith of Montana, and Mr. Frank E. Palmer of Chicago, and Mr. Roy L. Palmer of Somerville, survive her, also two grandchildren, Mrs. Lloyd Day of Montana, and Winona E. Craft of Arlington.

MRS. KATHARINE S. RIDER

The loss of friends of Mrs. Katharine S. Rider, wife of Mr. Charles H. Rider, Jr., of 18 Alhermar street, were shocked to learn of her sudden death, which occurred on Saturday, April 3rd. She was born in South Dakota, December 28, 1881, the daughter of Franklin F. and Mary Nell Strong, and has lived in Arlington about seventeen years, having been very active in Masonic circles here and also in Cambridge. She was worthy matron in 1923 of the Longfellow Chapter, O. E. S., of this town; a member of the Five Point Club, which is affiliated with the Craftsman's Masonic Club at Cambridge; also of the Boston Eastern Star Woman's Club and Harvard Lodge of the N. E. O. P. in which she was an officer, and until a short time ago a member of Ida F. Butler Rebekah Lodge of this town. She was also a member of the First Baptist church, active in many of its organizations and of the Clare Class, also the Philathea Society. Her unflinching steadfastness in the work that she was interested in and the reliance with which she could be depended upon to carry any task put before her, has made the place she leaves vacant a difficult one to fill.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday, April 6th, at 2.30, at the Chapel of the First Baptist church, which was filled to its capacity. Rev. Henry Sterling Potter, D. D., pastor of the church, officiated and Mrs. John M. Dick was the soloist. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Interment was at Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. Rider is survived by her husband and three children, George, Everett and Helen.

A Part of Every One of Your Rent Checks
Should Be Made Payable to You.

—AND IT CAN BE.

Here is what we mean. When you pay your monthly rent, a part of it goes into some one's pocket as a part of the cost of the house in which you live plus a profit for the owner.

The rest is for interest, taxes, insurance, etc.

If you owned the house in which you live, that part of the monthly payment or rent which covers the payment on the cost of building plus the increased value or profit would be credited to you.

In a few years time these credits would develop into a deed to the home and then it's yours.

If you will give us the opportunity, we will be glad to tell you how you can turn your rent money into a home of your own.

It won't obligate you in any way to get these interesting facts from us and it may mean a better future for you.

Her liking for flat tones, nicely related, has long determined the character of her water colors, almost any one of which would make good copy from which to print from blocks of wood. The artist in these past months has made water colors in Italy and North Carolina conceived in broad masses, freely laid in streets and old houses of Capri, Amalfi and other dream cities of the Mediterranean. EASTER SERVICES

Arlington Churches Have Record Audiences.

Easter morning dawned with cloudy skies and chilly winds that made one realize that spring was not here as far as weather was concerned. Never have so many of our churches been filled with such large audiences at all the services planned for the observance of the Easter as they were on last Sunday. In several extra seats had to be provided to accommodate the audience.

In Arlington the community custom of church members of the Arlington Heights Baptist, Park Avenue Congregational and the Methodist Episcopal, gathered at Gilboa rock on Arlington Heights for an early morning service, was carried out and on the following morning one of the Boston papers made a front page feature of the observance, showing Rev. R. J. Davis, minister of the Baptist church, addressing the little company gathered about the rock. Despite the chilly atmosphere, the worshippers remained a half-hour in song and worship.

Rev. Charles Taber Hall, rector of the St. John Episcopal church, wended his way up Hospital Hill on Easter morning to administer Communion to nurses in the Nurses' home, a custom which he has followed for several years. At this church the Holy Communion at 8 o'clock was attended by an audience that needed extra chairs to accommodate them.

The special music printed in these columns last week were sung in the different churches in the town, and in each the decorations were with Easter lilies, in some instances combined with daffodils, narcissus, palms and pussy willows. These latter were used effectively in the First Universalist church. At the afternoon service in St. John's church, potted plants, that had decorated the front of the church, were distributed to the members of the church school after a simple Easter service.

At the First Universalist church, prior to the offertory, the minister, Rev. C. F. Patterson, paid a beautiful tribute to the late Rev. R. Perry Bush, D. D., who passed away suddenly on the day previous at Tufts College, and who had been especially interested in the Arlington church, where he often, in years past, had occupied the pulpit.

Perhaps the most elaborate program in observance of the day was given at the First Baptist church, for which members of the church school have been preparing for several weeks. It was under the direction of Albert W. Derbyshire, A. B., assistant to the pastor, Dr. Henry Sterling Potter, D. D., the cast appearing in costume, which added greatly to the effectiveness of the beautiful theme. It was witnessed by an audience that filled the auditorium, besides many in the chapel. Mr. Mark S. Dickey, the organist, was of great assistance to Miss Grace Gordon Pierce, who directed the music.

Those taking part follow:—Mary Magdalene, Dorothy B. Crosby; The other Mary, Bertha J. Sweetland; Salome, Grace O. Ogilvie; Joanna, Marion C. Trask; Women of the Sepulchre, Helen Waite, Ruth Wetsell, Adeline N. Berry; Rhoda, Elizabeth Landers; Jerusalem Mothers, Esther L. Hayden, Alice L. Frost, Cora M. Spooner, G. Irene Hayden, Charlotte Davies; Jerusalem Children, Heber Youngken, Akon Young, Freeman Frost, Beverly Che, Berkeley Cue, Marion Crampton, Alice Athenas, Eleanor McManus, Martha Magnuson, Shirley Wood; Longinus the Centurion, Jos. J. Ennis; John, Wm. J. Hopkins; Peter, B. Fowler; James, M. J. Washburn; Andrew, Walter Allen; Philip, Ernest E. Washburn; Bartholomew, J. Lawrence Townsend; Thaddeus, H. Adelbert Townsend; Simon Zelotes, S. C. Souster; Matthew, J. Warley Smith; Thomas, Carl R. Sumner; James the less, Lawrence E. Whitman; Cleopas, L. Morton Dolloff; The other Traveler, Oscar Lorentzen; Junius, Charles P. Miller; Roman Soldiers, Kenneth T. Barker; James Alderson, Stanley P. Miller; The Lame Man, George E. Moore; Nicodemus, Franklin Wyman; Joseph of Arimathea, Jean S. Crosby.

At the Orthodox Congregational church in the afternoon there was a program given by some of the pupils in the church school that was well carried out. Ten boys gave scripture readings from "His last week" on earth. They were Raymond Harrington, Edward Brainard, Theodore Lannefeld, Felix Patch, Robert Converse, Edmund Whitaker, Otis MacMillan, Gardner Hinckley, Russell Snow, Harry Austin. A pageant, "The Challenge of the Cross," was given by Margaret Fernald, Anna Lacey, Dorothy Hillard, Alison Fernald, Dorothy Jones, Alice Walker and Ruth Davis.

At Park Avenue Congregational church, an orchestra assembled by Mr. Harry I. Tinkham added a great deal to the beautiful service. The violins were played by Miss Alice Holmes, Miss Finley, Herman Doan and the Misses Downer, Miss Virginia Holmes, cellist, with Mr. Tinkham directing. The church quartet, with Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, soprano; Mrs. H. H. Stinson, alto; Mr. Leonard Waters, tenor, and Mr. Carl Byer, bass, sang most acceptably. A large basket filled with jonquils and white pinks, the gift of Mrs. Clarence T. Parsons, in memory of her husband, occupied a prominent place in the decorations and was very beautiful. In the evening at this church there was a lovely service, which opened with Melody in F, Rubinstein, played by Miss Hager at the organ and Miss Doris Hager on the cello. The professional by some twenty children in robes was impressive as they sang some of the well known songs. The beginners, under the direction of Mrs. George Clark, made an appealing appearance in their singing of some of the carols, but it was the older girls in the church school, under the direction of Miss Helen Wright, who gave a dramatization of "The Triumph of Love," that gripped the hearts of the audience which filled the church in every part. Helen Stinson impersonating "Love," dressed in a white robe and carrying a candle, made a beautiful picture. Others in this dramatization were Beryl Moody, Helen Linden, Dorothy Doane, Dorothy Peterson, Eleanor Vaughn, Helen Danks, Helen Bennett, Ruth Dunn, Marjory Robertson, Katherine Davis and Frances Irwin.

At the Calvary church, five children were baptized and thirty-four taken into the church membership in the evening, the pageant, "Day-break," by Hazel Patten Hansen, was given by the members of the church school and some of the members of the Young People's Society. Mrs. Jess D. Taylor and Miss Janet McLean were in charge. The music was furnished by the church choir with Mr. Carl S. Nelson, church organist.

In the evening the pageant, "Triumph of Love," by Margaret Slattery was given at the Trinity Baptist church, in charge of Mrs. W. A. Corcoran. Those taking part were: Life, Hilda Roberts; Hope, Barbara Foss; Faith, Marion Philpot; Love, Florence Reed; Self, Etta Hagg; Service, Wilma Corcoran; Death, Ruth Hopkins; Fear, Margaret Engleson; Herald, Frank Springer; Elizabeth Bradbury, Alice Ferguson, Harold Davidson, Charlotte Murray and Evelyn Dreesaker. A large group of candidates were baptized at this service. At the regular session of noon of the Adelpian Men's Class, Pitt F. Parker, the crayon wizard, gave some fine sketches of the significance of Easter.

St. Agnes church was filled to its capacity at every mass, starting at 10 o'clock. A solemn high mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock, Rev. Donald F. Simpson being celebrant; Rev. Joseph J. Leonard, deacon, and Rev. Matthew J. Flaherty, sub-deacon. The sermon was preached by Rev. Fr. Simpson, and was in keeping with the day. The choir, under the direction of William F. Kelley, tenor and director, presented a very fine program. In the afternoon, benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was held. Services at St. James church were also impressive.

Easter Weddings

HADLEY—RIDEOUT

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Clark Rideout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rideout of 26 Woodland street, Arlington, and Mr. Charles Elliot Hadley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hadley, of 118 Mass. avenue, East Lexington, took place on Monday evening, April 5th, at 1:30 o'clock at the St. John's Episcopal church, Arlington. Rev. Charles Taber Hall, rector, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with the Easter lilies, and palms and made an effective setting for the bridal party. The wedding music was played by Mr. Paul Aiken, church organist, who also gave selections while the guests were being seated by the ushers.

The bride made a charming picture in her wedding gown of white beaded satin and georgette, with veil of tulle, arranged with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Barbara Shonolis, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore green taffeta and carried a basket of sweet peas and roid petals.

The other attendants were Miss Virginia W. Danham, of Quincy as maid of honor; Miss Theresa M. Hunt, of Boston, as first of the bride; Miss Anne F. Powden of Seal Harbor, Maine, as bridesmaids. The maid of honor was in orchid taffeta and carried orchid sweet peas and yellow tea roses, while the bridesmaids were in pink and blue taffeta, with arm bouquets of mixed sweet peas. Mr. Warren K. Hadley, of Lexington, brother of the groom, was the best man. The ushers chosen were Richard L. Rideout, brother of the bride; Herbert W. Saul, of Boston and Lexington; Clarence H. Conroy, of Arlington, and Dwight W. Robb of West Medford.

The reception following the ceremony was held at the Winchester Country Club, in the large hall that with its open fireplace, has quite the atmosphere of a house. The bridal couple and party were assisted in receiving the guests by their parents. Mrs. Rideout received in lupin blue georgette (trimmed) gold metal lace and Mrs. Hadley was in grey georgette trimmed with lace medals to match. The music at the reception was arranged by Bert Lowe's orchestra of four pieces from Allston. The decorations in the inviting hall of the club house were of rambler roses and the pastel shades of the sweet peas, the latter combination chosen to match the gowns of the bride's attendants. Fancy ices, cakes and coffee were served by the caterer in charge.

A large number of guests attended as the young couple are well known in Arlington and Lexington. Mrs. Hadley is a graduate of the Arlington High school, also of Bryant and Stratton of Boston, and Miss Lesley's School of Cambridge, and is active in many social organizations of the town, being affiliated with the Menotomy Chapter, D. A. R., Friends of the Drama, and the Longfellow Chapter, O. E. S. Mr. Hadley is a graduate of the Lexington school, and is editor of the Lexington Times. He is affiliated with various organizations and is King in the Menotomy Royal Arch Chapter, Arlington.

After May 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Hadley will be at home at Sheridan street, Lexington.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Boyd, Jr., Host and Hostess at Dinner Party At Their home.

Last Thursday evening, April 1st, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Boyd, Jr., were host and hostess at a dinner party at their home to over twenty guests, the event being in observance of the wedding anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. John Frye of Waltham, at which Mr. and Mrs. Boyd were the attendants. A pleasant evening was spent, following the dinner, when games, dancing and music were the diversions. Mr. Wm. Blessington played the piano; Mr. Harvey, of Waltham, the saxophone; Mr. Clarence Peterson, of Watertown, the saxophone, banjo and piano, and Mr. James Gray, of Cambridge, the violin. The decorations were in keeping with the Easter season, carried out with cut flowers and candles. The souvenirs were novel by noisemakers. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Frye, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Monahan, of Cambridge, formerly of Arlington, and parents of Mrs. Boyd were the special guests. The majority of the guests were from Waltham, Cambridge and Arlington.

BRILLIANT SPEAKER

TO EXPLAIN SCOUTING

Ray O. Wyland of New York, Director of the Division of Church Relations, National Council, Boy Scouts of America, who is called the most inspiring talker in the United States on the Scout movement, will be the speaker at a large mass meeting to be held next Sunday, April 11, at 3 p. m., in the auditorium of the Belmont High school, Belmont.

This meeting which will be under the auspices of Sachem Council, B. S. A., promises to be the greatest gathering of men interested in Boy Scouts ever held in Arlington or Belmont.

A general invitation to attend, is extended to the public, and already a large number of the leading citizens of both towns have signified their intention of being present. The Clergymen of Belmont will attend in a body as will be Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters of Sachem Council and many of the troop committees. A large delegation is coming from Waltham and smaller troops from Winchester and Lexington. Seth T. Gano of Belmont, First Vice-President of the Council, will preside and will introduce the speaker.

The Council is particularly fortunate in obtaining Mr. Wyland for the afternoon, as he is in great demand as a speaker all over the country. He knows Scouting as few men know it, knows its value to the community and to the country at large. This knowledge, coupled with his oratorical ability and his wonderful presence makes him an ideal spokesman for this splendid movement.

Everyone interested in Boy Scouts, everyone who wants to know more about its organization and its working, everyone who has the welfare of his town and his country at heart is earnestly urged to attend this meeting, Sunday, April 11 at 3 p. m., in the auditorium of the Belmont High school.

TOWN MEETING Passes On Fifty-Seven Articles At An Adjourned Meeting.

needed for the filling in of the place. He advocated the dumping of ashes and other material in there until filled up. Edward Schwamb, although not now a Town Meeting member, was a member of a committee sent out some 12 years ago to look into the matter of playgrounds for the Heights and Brattle street sections, and stated at this time that a committee reported, it was stated, that as soon as East Arlington got a playground, other sections of the town would be looked after. East Arlington has had a playground for several years. This town is "lame on playgrounds," Mr. Schwamb stated, and there is not a place in town where anyone can sit down and rest. He was strong in his statement that something should be started. Mr. Fitch was asked how the money was to be spent. He stated that the amount asked for how was to be used to straighten the brook so that it will run in a regular channel and not spread over the whole area and so make a swamp as it is at the present time. Mr. Fitch then asked Prof. Russell of the school committee, an expert engineer, to tell the meeting what could be done. Prof. Russell did so, stating that until the brook is controlled the ashes dumped there will not be the solution of the problem. He advocated the digging of an open ditch through the area for the brook to run through. A steam shovel can be put through this section easily and so dig out the ditch, pile the earth on either side for an embankment and then the water can be controlled.

Roger W. Homer asked as to what the ultimate cost of this project was to be. He said that he had heard the sum of $75,000 estimated as the cost and advocated an investigation before the project was entered into. Prof. Russell, in reply, estimated that with an expenditure of $15,000 the ground could be put in fairly good condition. This, of course, would not include the bleachers swimming pools or tennis courts, but would make it playable for the time at least. Bertram Washburn, a member of the Finance Committee, dealing with the Board of Public Works, arose to ask why the work on this playground should be saddled onto that department, he feeling that they had enough to do without it. William I. Marsters asked if it was in the province of this department to state what they were to do. Rather was it not for the citizens to request them to do certain things.

During the argument pro and con, the condition of Spy Pond field was cited as a sample of how the town looks after its parks. The water rights through the section were brought up and Town Counsel White was called. He stated that he could see no way where damages would incur if the town changed the course of the brook through its town land. Jacob Bitzer announced that he had been trying to see this land made available for a playground for 12 years and hoped it would be accomplished. Speaking for the Finance Committee, the chairman, J. William Fellows, stated that the only proposition that came before the committee was a culvert that was to cost $30,000. The committee was agreed that something should be done. They approved of a committee being appointed to investigate the matter the sum of $75,000 being conservative.

Elliott R. Barker of the school committee spoke in favor of the project and urged that some start be made. Mrs. A. A. Lawson voiced her approval of the substitute motion being passed and when the vote was taken, the amendment offered by Mr. Fitch was passed unanimously.

Under article 40, the town was asked to make an appropriation for the purchase of a lot of land at Broadway, Tufts, Warren and River streets, and Mr. Fitch stated that the price asked for the land when it was found that the town wanted it, was prohibitive. No action was taken.

The sum of $870.18 was voted to pay for the settlement of claims on land taken on Lake street, Park street, Central street and Irving street.

Under article 42, the meeting voted that hereafter there would be a fee of fifty cents charged by the inspector of wires for each permit issued from his office. Article 43 related to the revoking of a chapter relating to the tenement house law but this had already been acted on at the special meeting earlier in the month.

The matter of the adoption of the by-laws was laid on the table. Town Counsel White asked the committee if they wanted them accepted as printed and if they were satisfied with them. He had discovered a few mistakes. The matter was laid on the table to be taken up at the adjourned meeting as was the next article, relating to the zoning laws.

The remaining articles in the warrant dealt with the acceptance of streets and the recommendation of the Finance Committee was carried out. Mr. Fellows explained that if all were accepted as asked for, the town would have to make an appropriation of $192,000. That his committee had cut this down to $128,

38. The following were accepted: Rawson road, Amsden street, Bonad road, Freeman street, Orchard terrace, Peirce street, Pondview road, Valdo road and Webster street. The matter of the acceptance of Webster street was laid on the table. The Finance Committee recommended that no action be taken.

The meeting reached Article 62, but on account of Webster street being laid over until the next meeting, this article was also tabled until then, when the appropriation for the new streets will be made in a lump sum.

Thursday evening, April 15, at 8 o'clock, an effort will be made to dispose of the remaining articles in the warrant of March 2, 1926.
